

MDI
GURGAON

Management
Development
Institute

Guidelines For Prohibition of Ragging

1. Zero Tolerance

Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited. Senior must maintain proper decorum and shall not engage in, support, or conceal any act of ragging

2. Respect And Support

Treat all juniors with respect. Provide academic help voluntarily, but do not exploit or misuse junior for personal errands or forced services.

3. No Disruption:

Do not interfere with any junior's academic, personal, or social activities. Avoid any behaviour that may cause physical or psychological distress.

4. Strict Prohibition on Abuse:

Acts of physical, sexual or verbal abuse, forcing lewd acts, using obscene language, or causing any harm to juniors or strictly forbidden.

5. No Humiliation on Abuse :

Do not compel juniors to perform acts that cause shame, embarrassment, or mental trauma. no forced expenditure shall be imposed on any junior.

6. No Verbal or Online Harassment:

Avoid abusive words, humiliating emails, post, or public insults. Do not derive sadistic pleasure or show superiority by causing discomfort to juniors.

7. Report And Assist:

if you notice any instances of ragging, you must immediately report it to the Anti-Ragging Committee or hostel authorities and cooperate fully with any investigation, raid, or inquiry.

8. Acceptance Of Accountability:

acknowledge awareness of ragging, laws and prescribed punishments. if found guilty of ragging or abetting ragging, you will accept the penalties, which may include but are not limited to:

- .Cancellation of admission
- .Suspension from classes, placements, and other academic privileges
- .Sithholdings scholarships or benefits
- .Debarment from exams and events
- .Suspension, expulsion, rustication, and ban from other institutions
- .Collective punishment if the culprits remain unidentified

9. Active Participation:

Actively assist the institute's efforts to eradicate ragging and promote a culture of mutual respect and safety.