

Advance Your Research Career with MDI Gurgaon's Prestigious FPM Programme – Applications Open

India [Date], 2025: Management Development Institute \(MDI\) Gurgaon, one of India's premier business schools, has extended the application deadline for its Fellow Programme in Management (FPM) to February 28, 2025. Recognised as a PhD-equivalent by the Association of Indian Universities (AIU), this programme offers both residential and non-residential tracks, catering to scholars and industry professionals seeking advanced research opportunities.

The programme is designed to develop thought leaders through rigorous, interdisciplinary research aligned with contemporary management challenges. The programme equips scholars with a deep understanding of business dynamics, preparing them to advance management thought and solve real-world problems. Scholars benefit from mentorship by distinguished faculty and access to global research networks, including opportunities for international collaborations and conferences.

The FPM programme offers specialisations across key management domains, including Economics & Public Policy Management, Accounting & Finance, Information Management, Marketing, Operations Management, Organisational Behaviour & Human Resource Management, Business Communication and Strategic Management.

The institute is committed to providing an environment conducive to academic and research excellence. At the heart of this commitment is the Library and Information Centre, which houses an extensive collection of over 60,000 books. In addition to its physical resources, the library provides access to a wealth of electronic resources, including e-books, academic journals, and specialised databases, ensuring that students and researchers have the tools they need to stay at the forefront of their fields. Resources such as ABI/INFORM, Business Source Complete, JSTOR, and the Bloomberg Terminal enable scholars to conduct advanced research, access the best study materials, and stay updated on global trends and developments.

The FPM (Fellow Programme in Management) curriculum is designed to stay in sync with evolving industry trends and research advancements. With international collaborations and participation in global conferences, scholars gain valuable exposure and a comprehensive understanding of the global business landscape.

FPM graduates from MDI Gurgaon have made notable contributions to academia and industry, both in India and internationally, excelling in research, teaching, and corporate leadership.

Applications for the 2025 Batch are open. Interested candidates can apply online by February 28, 2025 5:00 PM through MDI Gurgaon's official website: www.mdi.ac.in.
